

World Book Day Day Winners

Treasure Hunt Junior: Luke Cleary and Shona O Connor

Acrostic Poetry Junior: Leona Sheehy

Reading Challenge: Fabiano de Silva and Katie Finucane

Spelling Quiz: St. Fergus

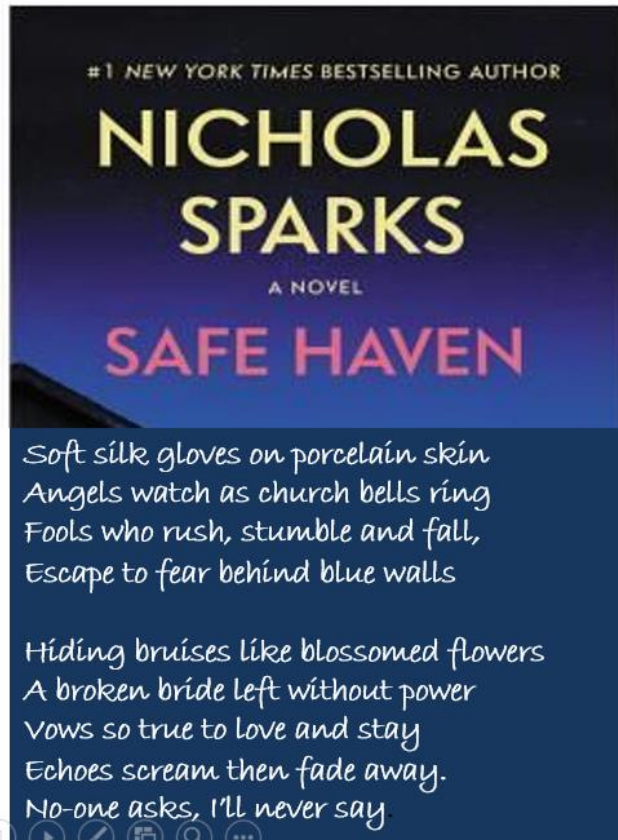

Treasure Hunt Senior: Katie Thorton and Alannah Brent. Missing Rachel Rowlands

Amazing Acrostics

More on the Literacy
Board!

Senior Winner – Brenda O'Connor

Junior Winner – Leona Sheehy

Bruno
Only wanted to make friends
Young and

Innocent
Never

Thought
How this would End

Strange people
Trapped by Railings
In Prison
Ending with Death and

Pleading and Yelling
Jews
All that Mattered gone
And Sacrificed

Leona Sheehy,
Clonfert

Taken as kids
How did they get there
Everyone
wonders

Memory gone
All trapped in Zoo-like cage
Everyday

Run the maze
Under pressure
No time
No clues
Escape route
Run!
Eleanor Kearney

The story
Harrowing about
Executing the poor

How this is acceptable is truly Unknown. But
No-one ever questions it – they'd be shot with Guns if they rebelled again. Ms. Katniss
Evergreen is picked...the new Rebellion – a sign of hope. The Games are unforgiving

Almost all will die.
More than likely the Government will triumph. But....
Even with all its technology, its power, there is no
Substitute for pride, heart and family

Conor Hogan, Munchins

Strict orders
Or
No rules, story

Of two boys
Finding a friendship

Rage
Against Mankind
Boys often at war
Out of the blue
Winners they become

Tara Enright, Senans

Library Treasure Hunt

Beautiful Book Covers Designed by Mr. Langan's Art Students

